NEW POEMS Jan 02 2021
Poetry. Peter Ganick's NEW POEMS is a major development in his extensive work. His unique, complex meditative style is condensed into short, brilliant, resonant, and enigmatic poems. Jonathan Penton says, "...every moment is alive with multiple meanings..." These poems thus reveal the swarm of worlds or memories that lies within our consciousness. As Sheila E. Murphy says, this book reveals "...a weltanschauung of precision, power, and humor that give back to us first things..."

Music in The Girl's Own Paper: An Annotated Catalogue, 1880-1910 Jan 22 2020

Nineteenth-century British periodicals for girls and women offer a wealth of material to understand how girls and women fit into their social and cultural worlds, of which music making was an important part. The Girl's Own Paper, first published in 1880, stands out because of its rich musical content. Keeping practical usefulness as a research tool and as a guide to further reading in mind, Judith Barger has catalogued the musical content found in the weekly and later monthly issues during the magazine's first thirty years, in music scores, instalments of serialized fiction about musicians, music-related nonfiction, poetry with a musical title or theme, illustrations depicting music making and replies to musical correspondents. The book's introductory chapter reveals how content in The Girl's Own Paper changed over time to reflect a shift in women's music making from a female accomplishment to an increasingly professional role within the discipline, using 'the piano girl' as a case study. A comparison with musical content found in The Boy's Own Paper over the same time span offers additional insight into musical content chosen for the girls' magazine. A user's guide precedes the chronological annotated catalogue; the indexes that follow reveal the magazine's diversity of approach to the subject of music.

From My Earliest Memory

Feb 21 2020 When looking back over my eighty-six years, it is hard to imagine that those years are behind me. I thank God for every one. Many told stories that only I can tell. I wish there were more years spent with my two daughters, for they grew up so fast. In writing my autobiography, God has given me remembrance of the past. I pray that this true story will hold dear to my daughters' (Christy and Lori's) hearts, giving them a little map of their heritage. There were many bumps in the road, but God had straightened them all out.

Loving Sheila for 8 Years Jan 26 2023 I prayed to God for a woman of my dreams and when I saw her, I found love at first sight. While we enjoyed splendid vacations together she inspired me to write poems that marked the times of our lives and the love we shared. So strong was my love for her beauty grace and poise, that I couldn't hardly take my eyes off her and I held her hand until she passed away at my side.

That wonderful coach trip

Nov 24 2022 The passengers on a Coach tour to Austria vary from Veterans reliving wartime experiences to teenage girls with fervent Showbiz ambitions who discover two others are Theatrical Agents. And there is intense rivalry between three Wildlife Photographers to win their Club's Gold Cup. And there is the initial wariness of Sheila Conway, Bill Johnson's new Courier, about him. This gives way to a deepening relationship that is not without its problems. Not least is the intensity of the feeling of Sheridan Coleridge for Sheila and whether he will move on from being an Admirer to being a Pain, a Pest - or even a Stalker? Romance, conflict, humour, mystery and drama are intermixed among the passengers and Crew on this two-week long Coach Tour. Confessions of an Old Man Oct 31 2020 My book covers my life and times and is replete with confidences and revelations both political and personal.

Lots of questions and even more adventures await our friends when they go on their trip across the border. And for you there might be an Abenaki 101 in store!

Enduring Freedom Dec 21 2019 This brand new anthology has been compiled to commemorate 10 years in Afghanistan. Announced in November 2010, contributions for a book of war poems were sought, and aided by appeals in the media, including BFBS Radio, the Army Families Federation and the charity Combat Stress, to name but a few; poems came from serving personnel of all ranks, veterans, families and friends. These poems all have one thing in common: they speak from and with the very soul of our Armed Forces of which we are so proud. With an introduction by Sir Andrew Motion, Poet Laureate 1999-2009 and foreword by the former Head of the TA (Territorial Army), His Grace, The Duke of Westminster, this high-profile anthology is sure to stimulate poetry enthusiasts and those with an interest in supporting HM Forces personnel. The book contains a large proportion of new poetry inspired by events and operations relating to Afghanistan, written by both previously unpublished, and established poets who have found this book a suitable and timely vehicle for their powerful prose and poetry. One of the most powerful entries is from a schoolgirl, whose Wootton Bassett inspired poem is sure to stir the emotions. £2 from each book supports Combat Stress.

2021 Sheila Larksdon had all the comforts most women wanted. Attractive, married, wealth, a beautiful home in the Atlanta suburbs, and her own business. Except she wasn't satisfied in her bedroom where she pined for more from her husband, Mark. Asked to assist a female relative of Mark's, sell her home and buy a new one, Sheila readily agreed. But it required spending long weekends away from home. It was during those weekends that Sheila and the relative began an illicit affair that altered Sheila's life forever. A senseless act of betrayal brought Sheila to her senses, and she ended the relationship before it ruined her marriage. Years later, after Mark's death, Sheila left her life in Atlanta behind and moved in with Regina, the woman Sheila had an affair with, and the two reignited their love affair. Content in her life as a lesbian, Sheila made plans to take on new challenges and make new memories. But fate intervened, and Regina was fatally shot and killed during a robbery.

Alone again, Sheila longed for human companionship and began engaging in affairs with men and women. One was A New Year's Eve dinner date that ended tragically for Sheila and almost lost her life. A chance encounter with Charlotte, a woman from her past, led to the women forming a bond. Both shared intimate things from their past, and the bond strengthened into love. Sheila saw a future with Charlotte and began a life with her designed to last forever. But, did anything last forever for Sheila?

Into The Shee Oct 23 2022

Written in magic realism, this novel finds Sheila O'Conor, an Irish American woman experiencing mysterious events at an ancient hillfort in Northern Ireland. A series of coincidences include meeting a small girl within the Shee or faerymound, some faery folk, and a folklore professor who encourages her to accept an invitation to the mythical land of Tir-na-nOg. Overcoming her doubts and fears, she eventually voyages to this magical land and experiences wonders. Then she meets her high school sweetheart and the three companions voyage together to Tir-na-nOg for more wondrous surprises. After a series of "Rememberings", Sheila recalls her childhood and marriage and receives insight into her life. The fascinating setting at Emain Macha or Navan for, home of the mythological Red Branch Kings, inspired the Navan Interpretive Center in Armagh, visited by people from all over the world for its literary and archeological importance.

The Two of Us Apr 05 2021

When John Thaw, star of The Sweeney and Inspector Morse, died from cancer in 2002, a nation lost one of its finest actors and Sheila Hancock lost a beloved husband. In this unique double biography she chronicles their lives - personal and professional, together and apart. John Thaw was born in Manchester, the son of a lorry driver. When he arrived at RADA on a scholarship he felt an outsider. In fact his timing was perfect: it was the sixties and television was beginning to make its mark. With his roles in Z-Cars and The Sweeney, fame came quickly. But it was John's role as Morse that made him an icon. In 1974 he married Sheila Hancock, with whom he shared a working-class background and a RADA education. Sheila was already the star of the TV series The Rag Trade and went on to become the first woman artistic director at the RSC. Theirs was a sometimes turbulent, always passionate relationship, and in this remarkable book Sheila describes their love - weathering overwork and the pressures of celebrity, drink and cancer - with honesty and piercing intelligence, and evokes two lives lived to the utmost.

Seasons for Your Soul Dec

01 2020 Seasons for Your Soul

paints pictures for your mind as you reflect on how God is working and moving in your life. Sheila's collection of poems, psalms, and reflections bring a feeling of peace and contentment. The author keeps returning to one constant - the love and mercy of God. No matter where it is in the calendar year, you are living through today. Whether good or bad, happy or sad, you are dealing with life on some emotional level. How often do you stop to be in tune with your feelings at any given moment? Some people are more naturally inclined to relate to their inner selves, while others may need to prime the pump! Either way, this book was brought together for you. We pray that whatever type of day you are living, you might connect with many pages and stages of life given throughout this book. We would love for you to pause a moment each day for thought and reflection and to open up to your feelings. The psalmists of the Bible seemed to understand this very process and were unafraid to share all of their feelings with a Holy yet infinitely compassionate God. We are all in different places on our paths through this life. We pray that you will be blessed with God's peace and guidance as you move forward toward Him. Join us in the journey! "Taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the one who takes refuge in him." Psalm 34:8

I'll Go No More A-Roving

Jun 19 2022 Praise for Somewhere I Have Never Traveled This is fourth volume of Robert Ayres Carters autobiography takes the reader back to the 1970s. From the outside, Carters life seems conventional: he was an executive in the world of publishing and advertising, commuting between Long Island and Manhattan. Setting this work apart from the ordinariness of that sort of life is the clarity of his unflinching revelation of his private affairs, emotions, and thoughts. His struggles to become a writer of novels, his self-doubts, and his emotional and physical involvement with many women, and the collapse of two marriages are all described vividly with the skill of the accomplished novelist. Perhaps most poignant of all are his descriptions of his sense of loss from his separation from his two sons. - James Scanlon, Professor Emeritus of History, Randolph-Macon College Enniskerry: Archives, Notes, and Stories from the Village

Feb 15 2022 This book is a collection of essays, articles, and images gathered over the

It provides contemporary reports of buildings, developments, giving perspectives of both residents and visitors to the village. Those interested in their family history will find hundreds of names listed in the various land surveys, work account and pension books and other local sources, brought together and indexed for the first time. The book is illustrated with a diverse range of images of our village.

Obsessed Sep 22 2022 The

New York Times bestselling author of Bad Girls tells the true-crime tale of a Connecticut woman who became a real-life Fatal Attraction. Sheila Davaloo was young, attractive, and successful. When she started a new job at a cutting-edge research lab in Stamford, Connecticut, she met the man of her dreams. Nelson Sessler had no idea how violently Sheila would react when he began seeing a co-worker, Anna Lisa Raymundo. Sheila eliminated her rival in a bloody knife attack—and then turned her rage on another victim she saw as an obstacle to her passions. M. Williams Phelps recounts the riveting story of a white-collar love triangle gone horribly wrong . . . and the terrifying infatuation that drove one woman to kill. Praise for Obsessed “True-crime junkies will be sated by the latest thriller from Phelps, which focuses on a fatal love triangle that definitely proved to be stranger than fiction. The police work undertaken to solve the case is recounted with the right amount of detail, and readers will be rewarded with shocking television-worthy twists in a story with inherent drama.” —Publishers Weekly Includes sixteen pages of dramatic photos

Sheila's Men Jan 14 2022

SHEILA'S MEN is a dark modern fairy tale that follows the life of Sheila, a naïve romantic living in poverty who blindly marries a man in the hopes of providing a better life for herself and her daughter. Soon after marrying, her husband increasingly subjects her to emotional, physical, and sexual abuse. And since he refuses to get a job, Sheila begins working long hours far from home and encounters a seemingly endless onslaught from other manipulative and abusive men. Growing increasingly overworked, distanced from her beloved daughter, and frustrated with the manipulative and abusive men inside and outside her home, Sheila prepares to end her life. If there is a prince charming who understands her worth, he must inspire her to believe in herself soon. (Based on a true story.) WARNING: Sheila's Men is a fictionalized account of one woman's real-life struggle to escape abusive relationships and is intended, in part, to help others recognize and escape such relationships. As such, this book necessarily contains language and scenarios related to self-harm, suicide, and abuse (emotional, physical, sexual, and financial) that might be triggering for some audiences. Reader discretion is advised. Sheila Murphy Greatest Hits Apr 17 2022 12 greatest hit poems from the career of Sheila E. Murphy.
